

姫路獨協大学 第30回 高校英語スピーチコンテストに参加しました

30th Himeji Dokkyo University English Speech Contest

On Sunday the 8th of October the 30th Himeji Dokkyo University English Speech contest was held. There were 14 students in the contest. They were from 11 schools in Japan. Two 2nd Year High School girls from St. Agnes' High School were in the speech contest, Risa Yokomi and Kao Yoshida.

Risa Yokomi gave the speech I cherish being bullied in Junior high school. Her speech was about how she fought a bully in Junior high school. Kao Yoshida gave the speech The ability to accept disability. Her speech was about a boy in her elementary school who had Autism.

First prize was given to Shosei Imamura from Kyoto Municipal Murasakino High School. His speech was The Flower of Difference. His speech was about being bullied by boys because he likes to spend time with girls.

Second prize was given to Mariko Yoshida of Doshisha Senior High School. Her speech was I just wanna be me. It was about pressure in school to join a club. And third prize was given to Kenshi Nakanishi from Japan Aviation High School. His speech was Precious Words. It was about living with Down syndrome.

cherish	大切にする	autism	自閉症
bullied	いじめられる	pressure	圧力
disability	障害	Down syndrome	ダウン症